No reply to phone question in pedestrian death crash

BY JULIA SUTTON

editor@lsmmedia.com

A DRIVER has refused to say if he was on a mobile phone at the time his car was hit by a police vehicle.

The police vehicle went on to mount the pavement and killed two pedestrians.

Chef Nizam Uddin was called to give evidence at the trial of PC Kerry Smith, whose Astra Panda crashed into his silver Toyota Celica in Leagrave Road, Luton.

The jury at St Albans Crown Court heard that, after receiving legal advice, Mr Uddin would not answer questions that might lead to him being prosecuted for a criminal offence.

The police car veered across the road, killing Algerians Reda Lecheheb, 35, and Sidali Melal, 27, who had been out for a meal with two friends. It went on to crash through garden walls and smashed into the front of a terraced house.

PC Smith, 25, and a colleague were speeding along Leagrave Road, with blue lights flashing and siren sounding in response to a report of three men armed with a gun.

The crash happened at around 11.50pm on June 4 last year, as Mr Uddin went to turn right into Holland Road to go to his brother's house.

Mr Uddin, who was aided by a Bengali interpreter in court on Thursday, said he had returned from working at a restaurant in Tring, Hertfordshire, and had been dropped off at a house in Portland Road, Luton, before getting into his own car to drive to his brother's.

He said: "I slowed down the car and looked in the right mirror. I checked the front and positioned myself to turn right. My car was hit at the front."

"When I checked my mirror there wasn't any vehicle behind me. When I was hit, that was the first time I realised there was a car." He said he had indicated to turn right.

He said his mobile phone was in his pocket but when asked if he received a call on his journey he replied: "I don't want to say anything about the phone this time. I used the phone after the

Shopping centre criminals get bail to help hospice

FOURTEEN jailbirds helped raise more than £6,000 for charity - from inside their own 'prison cells'.

Having been 'arrested' by real police officers outside Luton Town Hall on Thursday, the caged 'criminals' set out to contact anyone and everyone in a bid to raise their 'bail' money - which in fact went towards Keech Hospice Care.

From the inside of their mock jail at The Mall Luton, the community and business member prisoners - who included Luton Borough Council chief executive Trevor Holden and Luton on Sunday's commercial manager, Jackie Bevan - enjoyed a tasty Jail & Bail breakfast and were visited by family and friends to give them 'emotional support' during their two hour 'ordeal'.

Lavinia Douglass, The Mall's marketing manager, said: "This has been one of the most exciting and successful charity events we have seen in a long time."

"Everybody had a great time, got really involved in the cause and helped create a lovely community feel. A massive thank you to everyone taking part."

Keech chief executive Mike Keel, who also spent time 'behind bars', said: "What a brilliant day."

"Thank you to all the escapees and those who posted their bail and to all those who came down to support us: we really appreciate it."

Cameron's text apology after treatment to MP in Commons

BY ADAM THOMPSON
editor@lsnmedia.com

AN MP has claimed that the Prime Minister apologised 'profusely' to her over text after the way he handled her question in the House of Commons.

Conservative Nadine Dorries (pictured), who represents the Mid Bedfordshire constituency which includes Toddington, had urged David Cameron to show Deputy PM Nick Clegg 'who's the boss' after claims the Liberal Democrat Party leader pressured him into dropping his support on her abortion advice campaign.

During Prime Minister's Questions on Wednesday, she asked Mr Cameron: "Does the Prime Minister think it is about time he told the Deputy Prime Minister who is the boss?"

Mr Cameron struggled to reply through schoolboy laughter in the Chamber and said: "I know that the honourable Lady is extremely frustrated." He was interrupted by more laughter at the unintentional innuendo before conceding and adding: "I am going to give up on this one."

But Ms Dorries told Luton on Sunday the PM contacted her immediately after the session to apologise.

She said: "Almost as soon as PMQs were over, I received a text message from the Prime Minister, in which he apologised profusely.

"The first thing he asked for when he got into the PM's car was a phone to text me. I regard that as the action of a man who was truly sorry and a display of humility, not arrogance."

After the incident Ms Dorries' abortion amendment was defeated 368 votes to 118 in the Commons. If passed it would have banned charities that provide abortions to offer counselling to women. The Government has however promised to consult on improving the services offered to women seeking terminations.

Protesters gather outside jail for the release of EDL leader

POLITICAL activists gathered outside a prison in a show of support for their leader who is currently remanded in the jail.

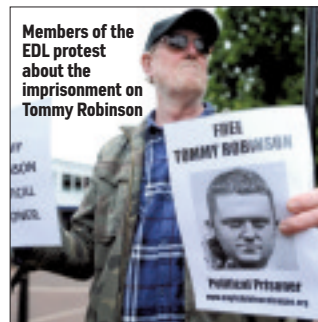

Around 30 members of the English Defence League (EDL) were stood near to the entrance of Bedford Prison on Wednesday with pictures of Tommy Robinson, of Luton, claiming his human rights are being breached. It follows bail conditions enforced by Blackburn Magistrates' Court that require Mr Robinson not to partake in activities relating to the EDL.

Last weekend he was alleged to have broken these conditions at a demonstration of the EDL in Tower Hamlets. He appeared before Luton Magistrates' Court on Monday and was remanded in custody.

Kevin Carroll, also of Luton, who is key figurehead for the group, was among the demonstrators outside of the prison.

Speaking using a megaphone, he said: "One man has been jailed for an alleged offence he hasn't committed and the alleged victim has sworn in a document that it wasn't Tommy Robinson who hit him."

"This country is becoming more like China every year. Tommy has more bravery in his little finger than the powers that be in Westminster." One EDL supporter, Dave Hedges, of Dunstable, said: "Why shouldn't he be able to speak? Tommy Robinson is being persecuted and we are all here to show our support to a great bloke." Barry Taylor, of Milton Keynes, added: "I'm not a member of the EDL but I am a democratic activist."

"I might not necessarily agree with Tommy Robinson but if he's not been convicted of a crime then he should be able to have his say."

A spokesman for Bedfordshire Police said the protest passed off without any incident.

accident. I am not going to say anything about the mobile phone before the accident."

Ann Evans, prosecuting, asked: "Were you distracted at the time you were turning into Holland Road?" He replied: "No."

Defence barrister Mark Fennells said: "You know you did not look before you turned." Mr Uddin said: "I already said I looked and I turned right."

Another driver, security officer Shamzad Hussain, had picked up a friend from the town centre and was driving along Leagrave Road when he saw the flashing lights of the car behind him. He pulled over to let the police car go past. It is alleged the police car then approached the Celica and, rather than trying to get behind it and to its left as it turned right, went further over to the right side of the road, causing the crash.

The jury was told the pre-impact speed of the Toyota was 13mph. The police Astra was travelling in the region of at least 56mph on the 30mph road at the time.

Mrs Evans said: "The calculations also show that the police vehicle was under maximum acceleration all the way along Leagrave Road - in other words PC Smith must have had his foot flat down on the accelerator and only started to brake when the Astra was travelling in the region of 66 to 72mph.

"This scenario suggests that PC Smith was travelling too fast into a developing hazard - the Celica in front of him turning right."

"He misjudged this hazard by driving too fast in all the circumstances to such an extent that the misjudgement tragically caused the deaths of two innocent pedestrians."

PC Smith denies two counts of causing death by dangerous driving.

Case proceeding.

Trust 'disappointed' after ambulance service misses target

AN AMBULANCE service has come bottom in a national league table of call-out response times.

Statistics released by the Department of Health last week show that the East of England Ambulance Service (EEAST) was the only service not to hit the standard 75 per cent for reaching calls within eight minutes in July.

It is the second consecutive month EEAST has failed to meet the target and while the national average was 76.4 per cent, our service came in at just 74.8 per cent.

The trust was also one of two services that failed to reach the 95 per cent target of responding within 19 minutes of an emergency call having achieved 94.8 per cent.

EEAST spokesman Gary Sanderson said: "The trust is of course disappointed with the results for the month of July but the target is measured on an annual basis and the trust currently is exceeding its target on a year to date position with performance of the month of August much stronger than in July."

Man's 18-year sentence for attempted murder

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A MAN has been jailed for 18 years after being found guilty of attempted murder.

Omar Richards, 22, who lived in Stronnell Close, Luton, at the time of the offence, was sentenced in relation to a shooting on May 10 last year outside the Cooperative Store in Wigmore Lane.

Richards had previously pleaded guilty to the possession of a firearm and ammunition in a public place and the possession of a firearm with intent to cause fear of violence.

During the sentencing on Thursday at Luton Crown Court, Richards was told that he will now serve a minimum of nine years in prison before being eligible for parole.

The officer in charge of the investigation, Detective Constable Thomas Hamm, said after the sentencing: "I would like to thank those members of the public who helped bring this man to justice."

"The length of the sentence today reflects the fear and danger Richards posed to the general public and reflects the force's resolve to remove violent criminals from our streets and make our towns safer places to live, work and visit."

Bedfordshire Police said they have a zero tolerance approach towards the use and possession of illegal firearms and continue their crackdown against criminals in the county.

If you have information about those you believe are involved in crime you can contact Bedfordshire Police, in confidence, on 01234 841212 or text 07786 200011.

Alternatively, you can contact the independent charity Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111, or online at crimestoppers-uk.org. No personal details are taken, information is not traced or recorded and you will not go to court.

Death of mother treated suspicious

DETECTIVES are treating the death of a mother, whose body was discovered at an address on Friday, as suspicious.

The 40-year-old married mother had suffered multiple injuries at her home. Her body was found at a house in Butely Road, Luton, at around 4pm.

A post mortem was due to be carried out yesterday to establish the exact cause of death.

Police were called to the address by paramedics who were already there having responded to a 999 call. Attempts were made to revive the woman but they were unable to.

DCI Mike Trotman from the Beds and Herts Major Crime Unit is leading the investigation and is appealing to anyone who may have information to come forward. He said: "The victim was a wife and mother and we do not know who would want to kill her."

Anyone with information should call 01234 841212, text 07786 200011 or call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Pair locked up for their role in stolen car exportation

TWO men were jailed for a total of more than eight years for their part in the exportation of a number of vehicles which had been stolen from outside houses.

Hassan Nyangoni, of Sylem Close, Luton, and Clint Sentongo had previously pleaded guilty at Luton Crown Court and were sentenced to four years and four years eight months in prison respectively for conspiracy to transfer criminal property out of the UK.

Officers from Hertfordshire Constabulary's Crime Management department launched an investigation in 2010 into the workings of World Cargo International based in Princess Street, Luton.

Nyangoni, 39, who worked at the company, collaborated with unemployed 27-year-old Sentongo, of Station Approach, Belmont, to export vehicles stolen from outside properties, some of which were in Hertfordshire and London, to various African nations.

Detective Constable Chris Rawson said: "These men were involved in organised crime."

"They had links with the burglars who stole the vehicles and were exporting them to make money. I am pleased they have been given prison sentences.

"Officers work tirelessly to prevent burglaries and where they occur ensure offenders are brought to justice."

"This was an excellent job by officers to bring these men before the courts and I hope this serves as a warning to others that we will do all we can to put people before the courts."

Experts cost council £26m

BY HAZEL SLADE
editor@lutononsunday.com

A CASH-STRAPPED authority spent almost £26 million on hiring specialist services in just seven months.

But Central Bedfordshire Council, which used the money to pay external companies, experts and consultants to help out on specific projects between January and July this year, has claimed this is more cost effective than having 'in-house' specialists.

The amounts – which were published on the council's online accounts under the umbrella of 'professional service – consultancy' – total more than ten per cent of the council's £200m-plus budget for 2011/12.

The authority claims the spend does not just cover consultants but includes all work hired in, including such things as legal advice, engineering expertise and architectural services.

Liberal Democrat Cllr Nigel Aldis said: "This is an issue we've been going on about for sometime."

"Employing temporary experts to do things, especially when we are making staff redundant, isn't right.

"I would have thought we would have the capacity, as a large organisation like Central Beds, to do things in-house. Consultants don't come cheap. It's unnecessary."

The authority paid out a total of £25,837,175.94 on buying in these services, with the highest spend by the Sustainable Communities directorate, which paid out £13,634,830 in the seven months spending £3,148,142.57 in May.

Cllr Maurice Jones (pictured) said: "The term consultancy can be misleading. In many cases, we get the best value by buying in private sector services as and when they are needed, rather than maintaining in-house teams."

Cops spend £1.1m on consultant fees

MORE than £1.1million has been spent by Bedfordshire Police on hiring external consultants and services in the past three years.

Between 2008 and 2010 the hard-up force paid out £1,125,909 to companies and individuals, with the largest amount being in 2009, when £440,622 was forked out, with £398,455 in 2008 and £286,831 in 2010.

Some of the type of work paid for included training, investigations, mediation, management consultancy, blackberry projects benefits survey, media, legal project management, victim support and CCTV survey.

The figures – which came to light following a request under the Freedom of Information Act – were revealed while the force is having to make £6.2 million efficiency savings in the coming year and following a million pound in-year funding cut in 2010/11.

A Bedfordshire Police spokeswoman said: "In order to ensure we continue to provide an effective and efficient policing response to the public it has and continues to streamline the number of staff employed with specialist skills and knowledge."

"Ad-hoc work and projects still have to be undertaken, however, for legal, statutory, training or research and evaluation needs."

"By outsourcing that, work objectives are still met without the need to employ someone on a full time basis, which would be more costly."

"In addition, external providers can often bring a different viewpoint ensuring the force maintains its high standard of public focus and satisfaction in the services it provides. Consultants and specialists are used by all forces only if the work cannot not be done 'in-house'."

"We are as always very aware of the financial pressures being placed upon us and only undertake such contracts when it is absolutely necessary."

Crackdown on number plate car crime

BEDFORDSHIRE Police are continuing to clamp down on car crime in the area, with two events in the next months to help reduce theft from motor vehicles.

The 'Your Number's Up' campaign, which was rolled out in early July in Central Bedfordshire, launched in Luton at the start of the month.

On Thursday, police officers and PSCOs will be offering motorists the chance to have their car number plates fitted with free tamper-proof screws and advice on crime prevention at the car parks in Quantom Rise, Bramingham Park and at Mecca Bingo in Skimpot Lane on September 27.

Both events will run from noon until 4pm.

Detective Chief Inspector Greg Horsford said: "I'd encourage as many people as possible from Luton and across Bedfordshire to take advantage of this free service which could save them a huge amount of money in the future."

The campaign aims to reduce motor crime, in particular the theft of number plates, which offenders often attach to their own cars to commit offences such as theft of fuel from petrol stations.

Only cars with number plates already screwed on will be able to benefit from this scheme, as Bedfordshire Police can only attach the tamper-proof screws to vehicles with screws already attached.

Anyone with information about vehicle crime can leave a message on the dedicated 'Your Number's Up' hotline on 01582 473241.

Food festival put on hold after windy weather warning

THE Taste of Luton Food Festival was postponed yesterday due to predicted high winds.

The event was due to be held in St George's Square in a large marquee. According to the Met Office, unusual weather conditions were forecast with gusts of wind up to 40mph expected.

Luton Borough Council was advised that such high gusts of wind could affect the stability of the marquee and endanger exhibitors, visitors and people in the square itself. A council spokeswoman said: "We are seeking advice on when this unusual weather pattern will settle and hope to reschedule the event to take place at the end of the month or the beginning of October."

Juror's 14-day jail term for court lie

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lsnmedia.com

A WOMAN juror who tried to get out of jury service by claiming she had been approached by two men whose case she was trying has been jailed.

Iram Naz arrived at Luton Crown Court last month and told alarmed officials there how she had been approached the night before in Bury Park Road, Luton, by the two defendants.

She wrote a note to the judge to report the matter and even went into court that morning to tell him how the two young Asian men had asked her 'Are you going to plead us guilty or not guilty?'

But what Naz, 20, did not know was that both had been remanded in custody the day before and could not possibly have approached her in Bury Park Road.

Judge Michael Kay said her lies had been behind her attempt to get out of her two week jury service stint.

On Thursday Naz returned to the same court to be sentenced, having earlier been found guilty of contempt of court. Judge Kay jailed her for 14 days.

She started her two weeks of jury service on August 1 this year. The following day she was selected to be on the jury for the trial of two young Asian men who were pleading not guilty to an offence of robbery.

At the start of the trial the pair were on bail but because they were found wandering around at the rear of the court during an adjournment, they were remanded in custody at the end of the afternoon - after the jury had been sent home.

The following morning Naz arrived at court with a tale of how she'd been approached the evening before in Bury Park Road.

She claimed that, on leaving court the day before, she'd gone shopping and she said she was approached by the two defendants while on the phone.

She was taken into court to tell the judge the story once more and when he asked her if she was sure, she replied that she was.

As a result, she was discharged from further jury service and the trial continued with 11 jurors. It finished on August 3 with one young man being convicted and the other acquitted.

But because of her claims Naz, of Oldfield Road, Bedford, found herself hauled back into the court last month facing a contempt of court matter.

Barrister Alex Krickler, who represented Naz, said she was a full-time carer for her mother, who is ill with bone cancer.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Convicts complete up to £600k of unpaid work

KEELEY KNOWLES
editor@lsmmedia.com

CRIMINALS provided almost 100,000 hours of unpaid work last year across Bedfordshire amounting to the equivalent of nearly £600,000.

As part of the Community Payback Scheme offenders are ordered to carry out work for free as part of their punishment.

Between April 2010 and March this year, magistrates in Luton and Bedford dished out more than 1,000 unpaid work requirements with defendants ordered to complete a total of 132,258 hours.

And in the same period, based on the minimum wage of £5.93 per hour, they provided almost £600k of work. Most of the tasks carried out by offenders is related to conservation - maintaining footpaths, building fences, cutting back undergrowth - as well as painting and decorating and other maintenance and litter-picking.

The biggest projects in 2010/11, in terms of hours worked included Marston Forest, British Red Cross and Age Concern, but housing associations, churches and a host of other community groups also benefitted.

Some offenders supervised by Bedfordshire Probation have been working two days a week since 2006, providing manual labour, such as fencing, car park repairs, putting up signs, raking grass off the wildflower meadow and scrub-clearance in winter. Others work carrying out tasks such as painting benches and general repairs.

In addition around 30 per cent of offenders sentenced to unpaid work do individual placements.

Following careful assessment to ensure they are suitable, some of these work in charity shops, but they could also be washing dishes or cleaning at leisure centres and similar, or be out onsite doing conservation work.

Alison Harding, assistant chief officer at Bedfordshire Probation Trust, said: "Community Payback makes a very valuable contribution to the local economy, enabling work to be carried out that otherwise would not get done."

Inquest into Tracy's murder opens

AN inquest has been opened into the death of a mother who was murdered last month.

Tracy Anstice, 37, died on August 26 following an incident at an address in Buttermere Close, Flitwick.

This week the Dunstable-based family of the NHS Bedfordshire Mental Health Unit worker paid tribute to her, describing her as 'loyal and loveable'. Her relatives thanked everyone for all their messages of love and support. On Wednesday Coroner David Morris opened an inquest into the death of Mrs Anstice and listed the cause as 1(a) haemorrhage and 1 (b) a stab wound to the chest. A date will be arranged for the hearing.

Lee Anstice has been charged with the murder of his wife and will appear in Luton Crown Court for a preliminary hearing on Tuesday.

Smoking ban re-think

SIR - Celebrity chef Anthony Worrall Thompson is patron of the amendthesmokingban.com campaign and has set up an 'epetition' to have the smoking ban amended to include a designed indoor smoking room, with proper ventilation (visit <http://epetitions.direct.gov.uk/petitions/14103>).

The Government said it will review any legislation with signatures of more than 100,000.

Despite ten days of wrangling with the Department of Health the epetition has been set up and all you have to do is click on the site, those on Facebook can register by clicking the petition button.

This is an opportunity for smokers, landlords and members of private clubs to voice the objection to the smoking ban, simply because no one asked our opinion before.

Laws must apply to all

SIR - With regard to Lyn Bliss's letter last week, the Dale Farm residents are not travellers.

They have been there for a long time and have been offered alternative accommodation.

It all comes down to the fact that they flouted planning laws and seem to think they can get away with it by calling Basildon Council racist and wanting to be treated as special cases.

I lived in south-east Essex for 32 years and the nuisance caused by these groups has to be seen to be believed.

When they set up home in a nice residential road they create mess, noise and are not interested in behaving as we do.

They want, they get, they take. It is no good complaining to the police as they will not do anything about these problems probably for fear of being 'racist'. Some of these groups are violent.

Why should the law abiding residents near these encampments have to put up with their houses being devalued, harassment and their schools and social services being used by people who do not conform to our laws and often boast about not paying taxes?

I think people should feel sorry for the residents of that area and the Dale Farm people should go back to Ireland and see if they can get away with their behaviour over there.

Do you think that Basildon residents like to see all this money spent on eviction? They are sick of the whole issue. We cannot have one law for them and the rest of us. It just is grossly unfair to the hard working tax paying people of this country, of whatever race or colour.

Cherry Griffin

We're thinking long-term

SIR - I write in response to Pat Conway of the No North Campaign Group.

Unfortunately Mr Conway misses the point of the Core Strategy, which I am sure he will be aware has now been adopted by Central Bedfordshire Council.

After ten years and £5 million of taxpayers' money spent of reviewing all the options available for essential

Luton has a bright future ahead of it

VISIT: Shadow
Chancellor Ed Balls
with Labour
Leader Ed Miliband

SIR - I was interested to see your article on Labour's Ed Miliband and Ed Balls visiting the Vauxhall factory in Luton last week.

They were full of smiles and I'm sure the whole event was a happy affair. Obviously the best news about the plant is that it had its future secured when the contract with Renault was extended.

The more cynical of us might suggest they were there at the factory to simply gain plaudits for helping to keep it going in the future. Maybe they were, and maybe they weren't.

The important thing is that Vauxhall in Luton has a future. Luton is a great town with plenty going for it - otherwise high profile politicians like Miliband and Balls wouldn't bother turning up at all.

It's nice to know we are important to the rest of the country, despite what outsiders think about us. Luton may be the butt of jokes but I wonder how many of those taking the Mickey out of our town drive Vauxhalls made here?

Steven Keown

growth, a list of preferred options was drawn up.

These were supported and voted on by both Luton Borough and Central Beds councils.

Luton withdrew from the Core Strategy only because Central Beds regards development West of Luton as unsustainable.

Issues like sustainability and deliverability were key matters for debate and land West of Luton was not deemed to meet the essential criteria.

As I have said before this is not about me or any other individual and personalising the issue does not really take the debate any further forward.

Yes, Central Beds' most pressing infrastructure project is the A5/M1 link road. It is a road that will benefit areas as far away as Aylesbury, Leighton Buzzard and most of southern Bedfordshire.

We intend to deliver what we know to be vital to the long term economic interests of Central Bedfordshire.

I am delighted to see that the Government has approved a bid by Caddington and Slip End to be in the next round of Neighbourhood Plan schemes and I know that these two parishes will use the process to develop a long term vision for the area, fully supported by Central Bedfordshire Council.

It is right that we now focus on the big picture, the strategic outcomes that we want to achieve for the whole area and, to use a soccer metaphor, playing the man and not the ball will not achieve that.

Conservative Cllr Richard Stay
Central Bedfordshire Council

No jail term is an insult

SIR - Regarding your story last week headlined 'Worker spent £50k of client cash on family'.

How Barclays worker Charles Bates thought he could get away with stealing more than £50,000 is beyond me.

He is obviously a young man, at 20, but he is now officially a crook and will be known as one for the rest of his life, which now lies in tatters. But it could be even worse for him - he could have been sent to prison, but he wasn't.

I'm afraid Recorder Leslie Cuthbert has seriously let down the public here.

Stealing of any description is bad enough but £50,000 - and then walking free - really is an insult to the justice system.

How much do you have to steal to get put behind bars? If £50,000 is not enough, what about £100,000? Or half a million?

What about a full £1 million? Maybe £10 million would be enough? This is a joke.

Where is the deterrent in letting off Bates with a suspended sentence to others considering committing this type of crime?

I'm sure they'll be quaking in their boots in fear of the justice system now. Somehow, I don't think they will be - in fact, it's probably more incentive for them to have a go to see if they can get away with it. They might even see it as being worth the risk.

How ridiculous.

Take up Parkinson's aid

SIR - I am very honoured to be involved with Parkinson's UK and one of the many services we provide, of which I am most proud, is our Helpline.

This is an invaluable support to the thousands of people who themselves live with this devastating condition but it is also a vital lifeline for their families and friends.

I know from personal experience that having a family member with Parkinson's can be frightening and isolating and often carers, friends or family members don't know where to go for the support they need.

We know that around 11,000 people in the east of England alone live with Parkinson's and I am determined to see that not only those with the condition themselves but also all those affected by it, know that there is help and support at the end of a telephone.

So far this year, we have received around 13,000 calls from across the UK. Although around half of these are from family members or friends of people with Parkinson's, I know that there must be many more out there who feel they have nowhere to turn and who perhaps haven't heard about our helpline.

I would urge anyone in need of help, advice or just a friendly voice at the end of the phone to contact the Parkinson's UK helpline, free on 0800 800 0303.

Because we're here, no one has to face Parkinson's alone.

Jane Asher
President of Parkinson's UK

Family help is out there

SIR - The figures published in Aviva's latest Family Finances Report, showing that the number of women opting to look after their children instead of working has increased by 32,000 in the last year, highlighting the real impact of rising childcare costs and the difficult decisions facing families today.

These ever-increasing costs, along with rising petrol prices and changes to tax credits, mean that for many mothers work simply does not pay, with some finding themselves struggling to break even or even ending up financially worse off, forcing them to make the tough choice between their careers and staying at home.

As the report also warns, moving from two incomes to one can leave families vulnerable, especially given today's difficult economic climate.

Indeed, our own research published at the height of the recession in June 2009 showed that over half of households had experienced a fundamental change in their working conditions including a decrease in working hours, change in salary or job loss.

It is therefore more important than ever that families are aware of the financial support they are entitled to, however their circumstances are changing. Parents can visit our free, confidential Turn2us service to check their eligibility for benefits and grants, and to find out more about how changes to benefits may affect them at www.turn2us.org.uk.

Meanwhile, as the new school term got underway this week, for many families thoughts were sadly focused on how they will cope with the ever-increasing costs that lie ahead.

Taking into account the expenses incurred through travel, lunches, uniforms and trips, recent estimates place the cost of putting a child through a 'free' state secondary school at a shocking £12,000, and recent research by Which? reports that school dinners will be up to 17 per cent more expensive this year compared to last year.

Working on the frontline of financial need in the UK, Elizabeth Finn Care sees first hand the very real impact that difficulties in the wider economic climate are having on struggling families. In fact, more than 70 per cent of the parents we have helped said they couldn't afford school-related costs before they came to us.

Our recent research uncovered further the implications of these financial pressures, with one in three parents admitting they are worried about how they will manage the 'back to school' costs they face, and one in seven revealing their children have had to miss out on school activities due to the expense involved.

At a time when the population of the country is faced with reduced incomes, redundancy, rising inflation and soaring food and fuel costs, even more families are struggling to make ends meet. It is therefore more important than ever that families are aware of the financial support available to them. Parents can visit our free confidential Turn2us service to check their benefits entitlements or eligibility for grants at www.turn2us.org.uk, which could help reduce financial pressures.

Police search for stab clues

A MAN was stabbed in the stomach following a fight involving a group of men who had been out drinking. The 26-year-old victim was knifed in Wenlock Street, Luton, at around 3.30am on September 3 and was rushed to hospital for treatment. A 30-year-old man was arrested at the scene but police are still appealing for witnesses to come forward to help with their investigation.

Detective Constable

Duncan Crighton said: "Although a man has been arrested in connection with this incident it is important that we trace any members of the public who can help piece together the background of why this assault happened."

Anyone with information can contact Det Con Crighton at Luton Police Station, in confidence, on 01582 394333, or Crime-stoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Staff unite for a worthy cause

A KNOWLEDGE engineering company is fielding a 28-strong team in the Chilterns 3 Peaks Challenge after a family member of one its staff fell ill. SKF based in Sunday Park Road, Luton, is taking part in the walk next Sunday to raise money for charity Iain Rennie Grove House Hospice Care after customer service supervisor Sharon Marshall put it forward as a worthy cause.

The Chiltern 3 Peaks Challenge starts from Princes Risborough and walkers can choose between three different distances - either five, nine or 18 miles.

Mrs Marshall, who will be taking part along with her husband and 13-year-old daughter, said: "I couldn't fault the service and support given to us by Iain Rennie Hospice at Home when my mum was ill."

"It was so helpful and the nurses were wonderful. As a company we regularly support charity events but as I have personal interest in supporting Iain Rennie, I am particularly pleased that so many people from SKF will be taking part on this occasion."

Entry costs £15 for adults and £7.50 for children, including a t-shirt and medal. Visit www.c3peaks.com

Cops hit road to combat law-breaking motorists

BY HAZEL SLADE

hzslade@bedsnewsunday.com

TWENTY seven vehicles have been seized and 83 drivers warned in a summertime police crackdown on anti-social motorists.

Bedfordshire Police have been combating the problem across Dunstable, Houghton Regis and nearby villages with a campaign as part of Operation Meteor.

From the end of June until the schools returned this week, officers have targeted nuisance motorists using mini-motos, mopeds, motorbikes, cars or any other vehicle which has been the cause of anti-social behaviour.

So far, the summer phase of Operation Meteor has seen 83 Section 59 warnings being issued in Dunstable, Houghton Regis and the surrounding villages.

Police have also seized 27 vehicles including a car which was suspected of driving at almost 100mph in a 30mph zone.

One driver was charged with a drink driving offence while three were found without insurance, three were discovered not to have a driving licence at all and two were found to be using a vehicle other than in accordance with the licence that they held.

PCSO Luke Jenkins, who has been co-ordinating the operation, said: "This has been a hugely successful venture by Bedfordshire Police and I think that the public feel reassured that we are doing everything within our powers to crack-down on anti-social behaviour in and around Dunstable and Houghton Regis.

"Residents across Bedfordshire should not have to worry about vehicles tearing up and down the streets in which they live or in the alleyways surrounding them."

"The high amount of seizures shows how big a problem this is and although the summer section of Operation Meteor is finishing, officers will continue to use Section 59 to ensure that the public remain safe."

NOW I am not a man for the countryside. Even though I was born in the leafy glades of Mid Beds, give me a town or city any day.

This is not the normal response. I remember a Conservative county councillor once standing up and stating that most people would like to live in the country but as that would be self-defeating, most people would have to be disappointed.

He might be choking on his beer if he reads the latest bullish statement from his Conservative colleagues in Government.

Chancellor George Osborne and Communities Secretary Eric Pickles are saying the Government is determined to press ahead with changes in planning law which will make it easier to get permission to build in our countryside.

Decisions about planning applications should assume yes unless there are strong reasons not to. At the moment the opposite seems the case, although it is often difficult to tell as there are more than 1,000 pages of policy.

This will be cut to 52, to make planning and therefore building much easier to accomplish.

It deserves a half-hearted cheer, as planning departments can make life difficult for what often seem the most simple applications.

And while I would not support concreting the entire green belt, it is perhaps time for

A rural plan could boost our villages villages to take some of the building demands if ever we get an economy that is growing. Not just housing but commercial development should be considered as well.

Many villages used to boast one or two small factories, which have recently been given the planning taboo. And when you look around it is difficult to argue that over-fussy and demanding planners have improved the eye-line.

I say half a cheer because it might be a little harder than it appears to allow a free-for-all in rural planning. While apparently a boring subject, when I was a local government reporter planning meetings attracted the largest audiences, which for some applications could be several hundred strong.

Rural communities will not be backward in setting up protest movements to any planning they dislike and it will be the Tory MPs who will be feeling the heat, as they monopolise these constituencies.

There is also the fact that many urban brownfield sites are more expensive to clear and prepare for building, so developers may prefer to leave them alone in favour of farmers' fields. This will be bad for town and countryside, although a few farmers might be happy to make a quick buck. But a boost to villages could help sustain their pubs and shops and they might start to look less like retirement estates with large gardens. They might even start to appeal to us townies.

THERE are lies, damned lies and statistics. The latest research appears to show that a person's month of birth could help determine the job or career they end up in.

This is not, the researchers hasten to add, anything to do with astrology, because, they say, that is just rubbish. Unlike this naturally.

So, if you are born in February you are likely to become an artist, March a pilot and September a physicist. As there are not many of them around, the statistical pool must be quite small.

It could just be chance. But obviously those who work in statistics cannot accept that. It does not say which month gives us the statisticians, or we all might do our best to avoid it.

Mall convicts on bail

ON THEIR WAY TO JAIL:
Police take the prisoners
down to The Mall Jail

THE arrests at Luton Town Hall caused a huge stir this week – and a lot of money was raised for charity to get the 'accused' out on bail.

The Mall Luton's Jail & Bail event on Thursday morning saw £6,400 raised for Keech Hospice Care when 14 community and business members were apprehended and 'sentenced' to a morning in prison.

Charged with the most weird and wonderful of crimes (hopeless romanticism, excessive Blu-Tack offence or indecent motorbike slowness), those arrested were sentenced to spend time behind bars at a special jail erected at the centre of The Mall in Luton to raise funds for Keech.

There was an incredible atmosphere in and around the mock prison, with inmates and visitors getting really involved. The Mall Monster & Keech's Bramingham Bear were there too to gather support for the jailbirds.

The prisoners (including Keech chief executive Mike Keel, Luton's Mayor Don Worthing and Luton on Sunday's Jackie Bevan) were armed with phones and, courtesy of T-Mobile, iPads, to summon enough funds to buy their freedom. While they struggled to raise their bail, the convicts got to enjoy a delicious Lavinia Douglass, The Mall's marketing manager, said: "Natalie B's on air arrest was great. We couldn't have asked for a better outcome."

Natalie B said: "I made it out of jail. Now I can raise more for Keech and you can too."

Anyone wanting to donate has until September 30 to get their funds in either by texting KEEL50 + the amount you want to donate to 70070, or through the Just Giving website at www.justgiving.com/mike-keel-in-jail.

The running total is currently on £6,400 but there is more money coming in from late pledges. All the money raised will go towards helping Keech Hospice continue its work caring for those suffering with life-limiting illness and supporting their family and friends.

Mr Keel said: "I'd like to say the biggest thank you to The Mall team who pulled this together."

You can also win Natalie B's Jail & Bail T-shirt autographed by her. So please dig deep and donate now and text KEEL50 + the amount you want to donate to 70070 before September 30. One lucky person will be drawn at random to win the T-shirt.

New facility provides support to stroke sufferers

A NEW integrated stroke service set up to help people and their families affected by stroke was officially opened by Lord Lingfield.

While this was the official opening, the centre, which is funded by Luton Borough Council with a grant from Beds & Herts Heart and Stroke Network for a 12 month period, has been operating since October last year.

The centre supports local stroke survivors like Tony Marsden, 63, from Luton, who had a stroke in February 2010 and whose ability to communicate has been affected as a result. Attending the centre has helped Tony and other stroke survivors to learn new skills and regain their confidence through group and one-to-one support.

The service is a partnership between The Stroke Association, Luton Borough Council, NHS Luton, Action for Rehabilitation from Neurological Injury (ARNI) and Beds & Herts Heart and Stroke Network. It was developed in response to feedback from residents affected by stroke who highlighted the need for more information about the condition and available help.

As well as aiming to raise general awareness about stroke, the new service includes specialist therapies by ARNI instructors.

Rehabilitation sessions are run once a week by three trainers, with six clients on the programme at any one time. There is also a weekly drop-in session for those who have completed the programme.

Facilities within the centre include cross-trainers, treadmills, recumbent cycles, an upright cycle, parallel bars and an ergometer.

There are also plenty of mats, medicine balls, gym balls, a neurogripper, sticks and a variety of handheld soft balls to help clients with their rehabilitation.

The service will be expanding in the coming months and years and is expected to cater for many more clients at any one time, and to operate at other locations across Luton.

Rebecca Chatterton, stroke development officer in Luton, said: "It is estimated that there are about 300 strokes a year in Luton with around a third of these causing moderate to severe long term disability.

"We are very aware through our work so far, that there is a huge need for and real interest in this new facility. We are delighted at the positive and inspirational feedback we have received from those like Tony who attend the sessions.

"Anyone requiring information about future sessions and how they can help in the life after stroke journey can contact me at The Stroke Association on 01582 891330 or Polly Parrish at Chaul End Day Services on 01582 557155."

If you would like further information contact the Stroke Information Service on 0303 30 33 100, or visit the website at www.stroke.org.uk

Clinic to close in dentist shake-up

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A DENTAL centre in Dunstable will definitely close next month - but a new one will be opening in nearby Houghton Regis.

Dunstable Health Centre, in Priory Gardens, will be shut by October 31 as it 'no longer meets new and more demanding standards for decontamination'.

The Community Dental Services (CDS) clinic - currently one of 13 in Bedfordshire and Luton - is being axed in a bid by NHS Bedfordshire to create a 'more modern and efficient service from fewer clinics to ensure its long term future'.

In March 2011, NHS Bedfordshire wrote to all patients using the service at clinics being proposed for closure to gain their views and feedback on the proposals.

At the end of August, NHS Bedfordshire wrote to all affected patients to advise them that they can continue to be treated in an alternative CDS clinic or at a general NHS dental practice and provided further information on this, including information on help with travel.

The CDS will be writing to patients at the four affected clinics over the next couple of months with more information about future arrangements and to help ensure continuity of care.

Tony Medwell, NHS Bedfordshire's Head of Primary Care Commissioning, said: "These changes will enable CDS to provide the same full range of high quality services for the same number of patients in a far more efficient way. That is essential at a time when the NHS has to get the best possible value for the taxpayers' money.

"The service going forward will have nine clinics spread across Bedfordshire and Luton to continue to offer good access for patients. It compares very well with other counties which, on the whole, have fewer clinics covering larger populations and bigger areas."

Houghton Regis Health Centre, in Bedford Square, will continue to provide the CDS service in south Bedfordshire, while in Luton both Liverpool Road Health Centre, in Mersey Place, and Marsh Farm Health Centre, at The Moakes, will also do so.

For more information on CDS on 01525 636921.

Have you watched the BBC programme "Flog It" or "The Antiques Roadshow"? Our format is exactly the same, but we offer the chance to sell without the uncertainty and commission of the Auction House and if you are unsuccessful at auction there may still be charges to pay. East Midlands Antiques realise that there are some very unusual items that require the exposure of a major auction house and would be pleased to advise in such cases. It's a woodland wonderland...

RESIDENTS now have a new green space to explore, thanks to the efforts of an environmental regeneration charity.

Groundwork Luton & Bedfordshire and Central Bedfordshire Council have overseen the completion of the final phase of works to Blue Waters Woodland and Plaisters Way to the north-west of Houghton Regis.

Improvements to Blue Waters Woodland included the creation of new pathways to improve access to and around the site, woodland management to encourage biodiversity and wildlife to the area and the installation of seating, way markers and interpretation boards to make the area more engaging for visitors.

Julia Watts, of Groundwork, said: "I hope that the combination of a natural play area and exciting and accessible woodland will mean that adults and children alike will be encouraged to enjoy the natural environment on their doorstep."

Cash cutting forces centre service review

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

TWENTY-three children's centres are being reviewed - and now is your chance to have your say on the services they provide.

Luton Borough Council said major reductions in Government funding means it has been forced to review the services provided by the centres in the town 'to ensure the right services are in the right places and therefore meeting the needs of the most needy and vulnerable families in Luton'.

The centres provide a one-stop shop for families run by qualified staff where children under five, can play, learn and be cared for and where parents and carers can receive support, guidance and professional advice.

Currently most centres bring different agencies including midwives, health visitors, dieticians, Jobcentre Plus advisors, adult education courses and support groups, all under one roof. To have your say on whether they are meeting your needs, or to find out more about what your nearest centre has to offer you, pop along to the public meeting on Friday between 6pm-8pm at Farley Community Centre, in Delphine Close.

Labour Cllr Tahir Khan said: "We know that many of our children's centres are delivering excellent services but we also appreciate that some activities could be delivered more efficiently."

"It's a fact - there is less Government funding available so we must identify which services will best meet the needs of its local communities."

Free crèche facilities will be available but anyone interested in attending is advised to ring 01582 548888 or contact your nearest children's centre to reserve a place. If you are unable to attend contact the Children and Families Information Service on 01582 548888 or cfis@luton.gov.uk

New sixth form opens its doors to students

BY LUI STRACCIA
lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

SCORES of excited post-16 students made history this week as they started at the brand new Barnfield Sixth Form.

The ultra-modern £60 million Barnfield South and West Academies cater for 250 students at buildings in Leagrave High Street and Rotheram Avenue, Farley Hill.

The teenagers are studying A Levels, BTECs and other vocational courses and enrichment programmes such as the Duke of Edinburgh award and the ASDAN Certificate of Personal Effectiveness award, which all help towards university points.

Lessons are held at campuses across the Federation, including the college, Higher Education block and Barnfield Enterprise Studio Academy, enabling the sixth formers to make the most of its learning and leisure facilities.

They can also take advantage of a range of benefits including:

- Free transport between campuses
- Free food and drinks
- Designated Sixth Form study and recreational areas
- Regular teambuilding days

Pete Birkett, chief executive of the Barnfield Federation, said: "I'm delighted to welcome our very first Barnfield sixth formers and hope they all enjoy a very happy and successful learning experience. The new Barnfield Sixth Form marks an exciting time for post-16 education in Luton – we can now offer a broader range of qualifications in ultra-modern facilities supported by a highly qualified and caring team of staff.

"We have been inundated with enquiries and applications to join the sixth form because I believe we are offering something that is unique and has an unrivalled range of opportunities for our students."

Barnfield Enterprise Academy is based at its college's New Bedford Road campus.

For more details on Barnfield Sixth Form call 01582 569569 or visit www.barnfield.ac.uk

More time for new crime scheme

BEDFORDSHIRE'S policing watchdog has welcomed the Government's decision to delay the elections of police crime commissioners.

The news on Wednesday means that voting for the new governance structure, which is set to replace police authorities if given the go-ahead, will take place in November 2012 instead of May next year.

Parliament is yet to vote on the plans, which form part of the Police Reform and Social Responsibility Bill, and is set to debate the issue again next week.

Bedfordshire Police

Authority chairman Peter Conniff said: "We have already spent many months preparing for the introduction of directly-elected commissioners. However, this decision will provide us with extra time to ensure the transition to the new governance arrangements is as seamless as possible and that there is no adverse impact on performance. The new timeframe provides us with the opportunity to fine-tune our plans and will hopefully also facilitate the development of clear national guidance which will ensure a smooth changeover."

Indebted over-55s owe £23k

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

OVER-55s who contacted a leading debt charity owed an average of more than £23,000 on credit cards and loans.

Figures published on Wednesday show that older people in Luton who were in touch with Consumer Credit Counselling Service (CCCS) for help last year owed an average of £23,573.

The charity said that the situation may lead to increasing numbers of retired homeowners considering releasing equity from their homes as a means of repaying what they owe.

CCCS added that the continued squeeze on household budgets – and in particular, large rises in gas and electricity bills – has hit older people particularly hard, causing many to struggle to keep up with their repayments.

CCCS said expects to see the number of homeowners investigating this option to grow in the coming months.

The charity's equity release manager, Tom Moloney, said: "Equity release can be a good solution for some retirees looking to deal with problem debts, but it should only be considered as part of a long term retirement plan.

"I would urge anyone in the Luton area who is in this situation to seek free advice from a debt charity such as CCCS, who will be able to explain all the available options and give the best advice tailored to your circumstances."

CCCS provides the UK's only free equity release advice service.

It is backed by the charity's comprehensive debt counselling to ensure that equity release is only offered to those homeowners for whom it is the best solution.

More information is available on 0845 074 2987 or at www.cccs.co.uk/equityrelease

Get bang on trend on a fashion spree with Gok

COMPETITION

THIS week, The Mall Luton has agreed an exclusive partnership with celebrity stylist Gok Wan for its Autumn/Winter 2011 fashion promotion.

As part of the partnership, and for the first time off camera, Gok will play personal shopper to one of The Mall's customers - personally taking one lucky winner on a £1,000 tailored spending spree.

All shoppers spending £50 at The Mall Luton between yesterday and October 2 will be offered the chance to win their money back in fashion vouchers.

Those customers with a free Mall RewardME loyalty card will also be entered into a competition to win the exclusive £1,000 Gok Wan styling session.

Gok said: "I am so excited to be working with The Mall and focusing my attention on getting their shoppers steeped in style and bang on trend this Autumn/Winter season. My advice to all - if you're spending in The Mall this month, you might be the one I take shopping very soon and we all have space for an extra few pairs of shoes don't you think?"

Lavinia Douglass, marketing manager of The Mall Luton, said: "We are delighted to be partnering Gok for our 2011 Autumn/Winter fashion campaign and are excited to have him on board to raise awareness of the great high street fashion we offer throughout The Mall.

"We now need lots of Luton's shoppers to come to The Mall to shop and enter for the fashion spree of a lifetime, so that we can welcome Gok to Luton; after all, everyone needs a Fairy Gok-mother."

BIG BROTHER

Channel 5, 10pm

In the early days regular Big Brother was nearly always more entertaining than CBB because everyday people were often far more watchable than celebs, not least because they went on more of a "journey". (Yes, the most ubiquitous word in reality TV land). Now, with a generation groomed for instant stardom via the Big Brother lenses, it's a different story. Whether you love or loathe it, there's no denying it as we see here with highlights of the new housemates' first full day inside. Assuming no latecomers do a "Brian Bello" and win the show, there's a good chance the winner is in the house now. But who will win? You decide.

Breakfast club

– with Heart FM's Stuart and Natalie

ULRIKA Jonsson came on the show to tell us about her new book, called The Importance of being Myrtle.

It's her fictional debut but we're more interested in playing a bit of a game with her as we'd heard she was a fan of the famous children's author Roald Dahl.

First question, did she prefer Roald Dahl or Tarka Dahl?

Ulrika told us she was indeed a big fan of Roald Dahl, which was a relief as we'd based our interview on him.

Next up we wanted to know how good she remembered the books, starting with Mr Twit and what she would do to him if he was her husband. She said: "I would have built one shoe higher than the others, amongst other things."

Next up we asked if you had to be one of the characters in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, who would you be?

She said: "Everyone wants to be Charlie, as he's such a charming, endearing sweet little boy but honestly I'd like to be Veruca Salt – I mean only Roald Dahl could get away with a character like her, it would be great fun."

Finally we asked what she had in her handbag, that we could add to George's marvellous Medicine. Ulrika answered 'vodka' then went on to offer: "Very gorgeous and expensive lip balm or I'm happy to offer you up one of my chewing gums."

We choose the lip balm as she said it was VERY expensive...

The most important question we wanted to know was if it annoyed her when people called her Ulrika ka ka kaa (you'll know this if you watch Shooting Stars). She said: "It's actually one of the nicer things people call me."

She was great fun and we loved having her on the show.

Stuart and Natalie present Heart Breakfast Monday to Friday 6am-10am on Heart 96.6FM

Take a look at lace and life in the 1600s

WHAT'S ON

THREADS OF LIFE EXHIBITION

Wardown Park Museum
Now until April 2012

TO discover what lace and life were like in the 1600s, the ground floor gallery at Wardown Park Museum is host to a new 'Threads of Life' exhibition.

This gallery shows lace in the context of the times in which it was worn, with short videos, bobbins, books to read and a lot more. With life in the 1600s being very difficult for the poor, lace was a luxury that only the wealthy could afford, and some of this lace was made in Bedfordshire and the surrounding areas.

You can have a look at different lace designs and also see some magnificent furniture and decorative objects.

Until April 2012 you can see an amazing gentleman's cap made in the early 1600s. It is embroidered and decorated with gold threads and gold coloured spangles. The work must have taken months to complete and would have cost a small fortune to buy.

Alongside this, there are some lovingly made baby clothes, a tiny shirt, and pair of mittens with false thumbs and a bib, created perhaps by the mother for her newborn child. Until October 2 there is a display of amazing miniature kimonos made by lace makers from around the country.

From October 4 there will be a display of spectacular lace-like braids which break the boundaries of traditional braid-making techniques and challenge perceptions of what lace is.

Let's rock 'n' roll the night away

FOREVER IN BLUE JEANS

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Wednesday, September 28, 7.30pm

WITH an exciting new show Full House Productions visit Grove Theatre with the smash-hit 'Forever In Blue Jeans'.

Promising a fun-filled evening of entertainment which features countless 'feel-good' hits from the 50s, 60s and 70s through to the best of today, this is a feast of entertainment.

The new production begins in the 1950s and 60s with rock 'n' roll favourites from Jerry Lee Lewis and Brenda Lee to The Beatles and The Monkeys.

Blue Jeans celebrate 50 years of Motown Magic which takes in hits from The Four Tops, The Jackson 5, Diana Ross and a host of other Motown favourites.

The Carpenters, Showaddywaddy and Abba bring us into the 70s. A piece pays tribute to the songwriting talents of the legendary Burt Bacharach.

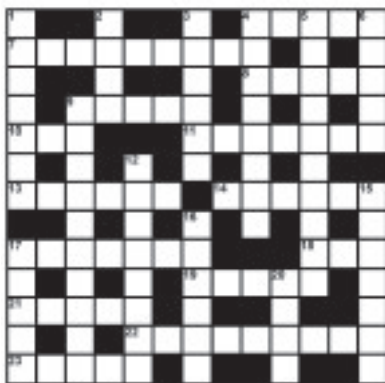

The show ends with everyone invited to the party for the Grand Finale.

The energetic company is led by TV and radio recording artists Carole Gordon and Bob Newman.

Carole and Bob have toured with both Tammy Wynette and Boxcar Willie, and have been voted Top British Duo by the British Country Music Association for three consecutive years.

Returning to Learning

Even the smallest things like working out the discount in sales are much easier if you've got the right qualifications. Adult learning may be something you've never considered but it can give you new-found confidence and will really boost your skills.

Courses are easy to fit round your day-to-day lifestyle and it's also a great way to meet new people. Learndirect has helped more than 2.8 million people gain new skills and nationally recognised qualifications.

It's easy to sign up to an online maths or English course and other courses start at prices as low as £21. It's worth checking though to see if you're eligible for funding as these courses may then be available at a cheaper price.

Local colleges also offer a range of courses to help you out. People of all ages take these courses so don't feel as though you're going to be stepping into a school full of young people.

If you regret not going to university then it's never too late to get a degree. The Open University has developed programmes which can lead to a range of different qualifications and they're all flexible to suit you.

If you're looking to get back into work, you may be able to take part in the New Deal or other programmes for unemployed people.

If you want an informal and confidential chat about improving your skills, call the Government-funded Get On helpline on 0800 660800.

CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS AND SATS SUCCESS LEADS TO MIDDLE SCHOOL MERRIMENT!

The Headteacher (Mr Scotchford) and staff at Priory Middle School have a lot to smile about. As the school celebrates its centenary this month it also celebrates its best ever SATs results which are well above the national and the Local Authority's averages. 93% of children achieved the expected standard in English whilst 96% achieved the same level in maths.

Mr Scotchford commented that these fantastic results are due to the hard work of the children, their parents and the dedication of the teaching staff. It was appropriate that during this, the school's 100th anniversary, three exceptional children achieved 100% in their maths SATs, whilst 67% of pupils achieved results that exceed the national average!

Notice of Intention to make General Vesting Declaration

Notice is hereby given in accordance with section 3 of the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1981 of the intention of Luton Borough Council (the Authority) to make a General Vesting Declaration vesting the land described in the Schedule to this notice in themselves at the expiration of not less than two months from the publication of this notice.

The following paragraphs contain a statement of the effect of Parts II and III of the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1981.

PART I

Power to make general vesting declaration

1. The Authority may acquire any of the land described in the Schedule hereto by making a general vesting declaration under Section 4 of the Compulsory Purchase (Vesting Declarations) Act 1981. This has the effect, subject to paragraph 4 below, of vesting the land in the Authority at the end of the period mentioned in paragraph 2 below. A declaration may not be made before the end of a period of two months from the first publication of a notice which includes this statement except with the consent in writing of every occupier of the land affected.

Notices concerning general vesting declaration

2. As soon as may be after the Authority make a general vesting declaration, they must serve notice of it on every occupier of any of the land specified in the declaration (except land where there is one of the tenancies described in paragraph 3) and on every person who gives them information relating to the land in pursuance of the invitation contained in any notice. When the service of notices of the general vesting declaration is completed, a further period begins to run. This period, which must not be less than 28 days, will be specified in the declaration. On the first day after the end of this period ("the vesting date") the land described in the declaration will, subject to what is said in paragraph 4, vest in the Authority together with the right to enter on the land and take possession of it. Every person on whom the Authority could have served a notice to treat in respect of his interest in the land (other than a tenant under one of the tenancies described in paragraph 3) will be entitled to claim compensation for the acquisition of his interest in the land, with interest on the compensation from the vesting date.

Modifications with respect to certain tenancies

3. In the case of certain tenancies, the position stated above is subject to modifications. The modifications apply where the tenancy is either a "minor tenancy", i.e. a tenancy for a year or a yearly tenancy or a lesser interest, or "a long tenancy which is about to expire". The latter expression means a tenancy granted for an interest greater than a minor tenancy but having on the vesting date a period still to run which is not more than the period specified in the declaration for this purpose (which must be more than a year). In calculating how long a tenancy has still to run, where any option to renew or to terminate it is available to either party, it shall be assumed that the landlord has every opportunity open to him to terminate the tenancy while the tenant will use every opportunity to retain or renew his interest.

4. The modifications are that the Authority may not exercise the right of entry referred to in paragraph 2 in respect of land subject to a tenancy described in paragraph 3 unless they first serve notice to treat in respect of the tenancy and then serve every occupier of the land with a notice of their intention to enter and take possession after the period (not less than 14 days from the service of the notice) specified in the declaration. The right of entry will be exercisable at the end of that period. The vesting of the land will be subject to the tenancy until the end of that period or until the tenancy comes to an end, whichever happens first.

PART II

Invitation to give information

Every person who, if a general vesting declaration were made in respect of all the land comprised in the order (other than land in respect of which special notice has been served), would be entitled to claim compensation in respect of any such land, is invited to give information to the Authority making the declaration in the prescribed form with respect to his name and address and the land in question. RUGBY UNION

Luton's without win as they are stopped by clinical Stortford

NATIONAL THREE LONDON & SOUTH EAST

BISHOP'S STORTFORD 28 LUTON RUGBY 3

LUTON RFC fell to their second defeat in as many league games after losing 28-3 at Bishop's Stortford.

Ben Murphy scored the only points for the visitors with a penalty kick six minutes before half-time, but it wasn't enough for Neil Harries' men to record their first point of the season. The difference between the two teams on the day was the home side's clinical finishing in front of the posts. Luton did share as much of the ball as Bishop's Stortford, but couldn't find a way past a stern, determined defence.

The game took a while to get going and the deadlock wasn't broken until the 29th minute when the host's scored a well worked try and converted for 7-0.

Five minutes later Murphy scored a penalty after offside was given to close the gap between the sides. However, minutes after the re-start, the home side scored another try thanks to a turn over only yards away from the posts. The conversion was taken meaning the score was 14-3 at the break.

The second half was similar to the first and Luton for all their effort couldn't break Stortford down. Two more tries and conversions followed without a Luton reply.

MIDLANDS THREE EAST (SOUTH)

DUNSTABLIANS league campaign got off to a losing start with a 15-17 home defeat to Wellingborough. A try by Duncan Holmes and points from Michael Leversidge were all the recently relegated side could muster as they seek to bounce back up this season.

The home side had the better of the first half with Leversidge scoring a penalty in the tenth minute. Holmes' try came in the 30th minute with Leversidge converting and then scoring a penalty to round up.

Manager Damian Days said his expectations for the new season were to avoid losing any games and improve on their performance yesterday as he felt too many unforced errors contributed to their loss.

An injury-hit STOCKWOOD PARK side failed to benefit from their first half wind advantage to go down 27-18 to Long Buckby.

Tries came from Michael Powell, Martin Rowe with James Hankey and Aaron Waterfield adding the extras.

However, spokesman Dave Budge managed to take heart from the performance, commenting: "If we take our first half form into the rest of the season we'll be fine."

Budge also said Stockwood will be looking to consolidate their position after finishing ninth last year.

LUTON TOWN

Stuart starts to

BY IAN RYAN

ian.ryan@lutononsunday.com

WITH the 2011 Rugby World Cup in full swing in New Zealand, Luton Town should have easily won by a score more akin to the oval ball game but only managed two goals against Darlington with Stuart Fleetwood netting on his home debut.

Ironically, after England laboured to a 13-9 win over Argentina in a black kit, this football game will be remembered for a lacklustre performance from another Englishman dressed in similar attire as referee Warren Atkin had a game to forget.

The man in the middle lost control of the game mid-way through a first half that saw a number of Luton players hacked down dangerously and inevitably led to the sending off of Darlo's Graeme Lee.

Fleetwood though, will be delighted to have opened his account in front of his home crowd after setting up strike partner Danny Crow for Luton's first.

Fleetwood looked dangerous throughout and in an otherwise awful opening ten minutes, he showed the hunger for goal that so many Hatters fans have been desperately craving, with a number of dangerous looking runs almost creating an opening chance.

And it was through the forward that Luton did shape up with their first real attempt on goal. After a one-two failed to come off between the pair, the ball fell kindly into the path of Crow, but unfortunately his well hit drive sailed just high of Sam Russell's net.

Luton were fortunate that Greg Taylor's low drive from range didn't punish them after some lapse defending from Will Antwi and Dean Beckwith. Both defenders failed to close Taylor down as he raced through the midfield to fire straight at keeper Mark Tyler, who would keep a first clean sheet of the season on his 100th appearance for Town.

Robbie Willmott and Jake Howells rekindled their partnership down the left flank and the former came close to giving Luton a deserved lead on 24 minutes with a low, curling effort awkwardly parried away by Russell.

The breakthrough came just after the half hour with Crow and Fleetwood enjoying each other's company in attack as the new man's perfectly weighted cross was casually rolled home by the former.

Darlington's frustration was starting to show. Attack wise, they offered nothing and resorted to cheap trips and high tackles to prevent their opponents advancing.

Former Hatter Liam Hatch found his way into the referee's notebook for a dangerous challenge on Howells before Lee was given his marching orders after a poorly timed tackle on Amari Morgan-Smith earned him his second yellow card.

Luton had a great opportunity to make their man advantage count before the break after Howells pulled his free kick back to Jamie Hand who was unmarked on the edge of the box, but the debutant loan signing's attempt ballooned over Russell's crossbar.

Darlington nearly caught Town with their minds still in the dressing room as they came out for the second half and Jonathan Sanchez-Munoz fired a rocket straight at Tyler who fumbled away.

But the effort acted as a wake-up call for the Hatters as they quickly turned defence into attack.

A slip by Sanchez-Munoz allowed Morgan-Smith to race clear down the right but an unmarked Crow failed to keep his header down and the chance went begging.

Riled by a needless yellow card moments earlier, Morgan-Smith cut inside his marker and unleashed his anger with a stinging drive that had Russell at full stretch to keep out.

The referee's shocking performance continued into the second half when Darlington had a cry for a penalty waved away just after the hour with Ian Miller adamant that Beckwith guided the ball behind with his hand rather than his head. Atkin then booked Hand for what seemed like a fair tackle on Taylor, which means he is now suspended for Tuesday trip to AFC Telford United.

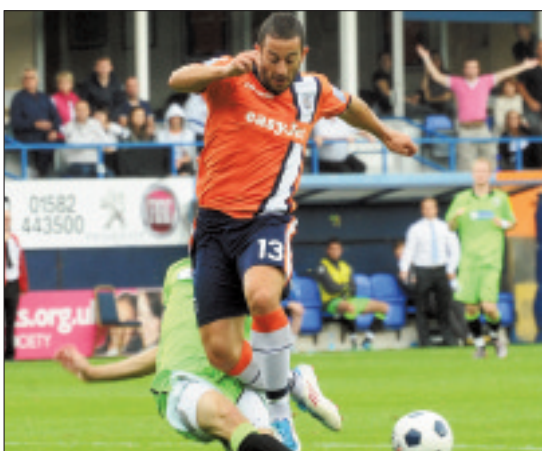

Shortly after, Fleetwood made it a home bow to remember with a well-deserved goal on 71 minutes. The striker dropped his marker in the middle of the box to easily nod home Wilmott's corner from five yards.

Luton were in complete control and coming forward in wave after wave of attack.

Crow had a couple of chances to make it three – he was first denied by Ben Purkiss on the line before his glancing header from Keith Keane's cross whistled wide.

Willmott then went close as his cross eluded everyone and required a fine diving stop from Russell to keep the score at 2-0, and Fleetwood nearly grabbed his brace as the minutes ticked down, with a free kick that shaved the post.

Straight red for Duffy as Rovers struggle

EVO-STIK DIVISION ONE CENTRAL
BARTON ROVERS 0
BIGGLESWADE TOWN 2

KEITH Duffy saw red as Barton Rovers poor start to the season continued at home to Biggleswade Town.

The 2-0 defeat keeps the hosts in bottom place in the EVO-STIK Division One Central with four points from their opening seven games.

Rovers were hoping their 3-0 FA Cup win over Witham Town during the week would have boosted their confidence coming into this weekend. However, a comfortable away win from third placed Biggleswade brought Dan Kennoy's side back to earth with a defeat. Rovers did start well however and Dave Parkinson could have scored after just seven minutes. His close range header tested the keeper but never the less he should have given his side the lead. He didn't and the hosts were made to pay minutes later.

Alex O'Brien scored a 20 yard volley in the 15th minute and then doubled his tally after half-time. His second wasn't a volley but again it was a 20 yarder.

Just after the re-start at 2-0 the game turned sour as Duffy was shown a straight red for retaliation after being fouled. The game ended with the visitors just seeing the game out and the Rovers ten men chasing the play.

Crawley held off by Barking keeper

FA VASE FIRST QUALIFYING ROUND
BARKING 2
CRAWLEY GREEN 0

GOALS from Max Holt and Bobby Port were enough to clinch victory for Barking in this FA Vase first qualifying round tie.

The home side had the brighter start of the two teams and profited from this when they scored through free-kick on 20 minutes. Holt found himself unchallenged in the box and rose to head home the opener.

Crawley's best chance of the game came in the first-half when the ball fell to Stuart Strange but Barking's keeper produced two point-blank saves to keep him out.

The Essex outfit then put the match to bed on the 81st minute when a through ball allowed Port to run clear and slot past Kevin Lane.

Holmes hits spot as Town take draw

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE PREMIER DIVISION

FORMER Luton Town midfielder Peter Holmes got on the score sheet as Dunstable Town drew 2-2 with London Tigers.

Town's other goal came from Nick Jackson with Kye Hendrix and Terrence Cariba netting for the home side.

Dunstable dominated much of the first half and were rewarded on the 16th minute when Holmes put away a penalty. But Hendrix equalised nine minutes later when he latched on to a through ball.

On the 60th minute, Jackson's 30-yard cross-come-shot flew into the back of the net to give Town the lead.

But once again the Tigers replied, this time through Cariba whose 30-yard free-kick nestled into the top-left corner.

Elsewhere, league leaders Leverstock Green extended their unbeaten run to eight games with a 1-0 victory over AFC Dunstable.

AFC will be kicking themselves after a defensive error allowed Paul Insole to sneak through and score the winner.

SOUTH MIDLANDS DIVISION TWO

A STEFAN Tracey hat-trick helped TOTTERNHOE to a 4-2 win away to Old Bradwell United.

Tracey ensured his side kept their one hundred per cent start in tact and Chris Golding grabbed the other.

It could have been five for Totternhoe and four for Tracey but he missed a penalty midway through the second half. Conceding two late goals was the only dampener on a good day for the visitors.

THE 61FC also kept their unbeaten run going by beating MK Wanderers 3-0. Bradley Currington opened the scoring for the hosts on the half an hour mark before their lead was doubled by Arron Lewis in the 60th minute.

A third and final nail in the coffin was added a minute before the end when Jordan Riley made sure of the points.

Elsewhere KENT ATHLETIC lost for the third time this season at home to joint top Aston Clinton. Kent did find themselves leading twice thanks to goals from Kieryon Bonnard and Luke Maloney but their defence crumbled in the last half an hour. Final score 5-2 to Aston Clinton.

Fleetwood gives Darlo the elbow

BY IAN RYAN

ian.ryan@lutononsunday.com

NEW Luton Town striker Stuart Fleetwood scored on his home debut in yesterday's 2-0 win over Darlington and gave Hatters fans a first glimpse of a goal celebration that they will hope to see many times this season.

The 25-year-old, who was signed from Hereford on transfer deadline day, replicated the elbow slap performed by character S.mouse in the BBC Three mockumentary Angry Boys and he is renowned for similar celebrations including an imitation of American wrestler John Cena's face wave.

Fleetwood said: "It was nice to bring it out and hopefully I can get a few more this season. It's just a stupid little thing. I'm into my comedy programmes and it's just a stupid little character from there. I like to bring a bit of fun to my celebrations so I'll be keeping that one for a bit. I like to entertain so if I can score than it's nice to bring some of that out."

But it was his partnership with Danny Crow that really turned heads during the comfortable victory over the Quakers with the Fleetwood creating the first for the former Cambridge United man to slot home before scoring one for himself in the second half.

"We got told that it would be me and Crow up front together and I think we gelled quite well," said Fleetwood, adding: "Obviously I set up his goal and it was nice to get one for myself as well. I know Crow is quite similar to me but he likes to drop in the hole and get the ball, so I can run in behind him and use my pace if I can. It's only going to help if we keep playing together.

"Crow is a player with greater ability than me on the ball so it's better that he comes short and I get in the box and score the goals because I don't really get involved too often in the build-up play. I want to be in the box and be scoring goals and if the lads create chances like they did today then hopefully I'll be there to put them in."

Hatters' support had Hand in switch for loan star Jamie

NEW Luton Town loan signing Jamie Hand has said that it was the buzz of playing in front of a large crowd that swayed him to move to Kenilworth Road.

The midfielder, who came close to signing for Stockport County in the summer, arrived from Hayes & Yeading United on Friday after a career that has seen him play for 11 previous clubs, starting at bitter rivals Watford.

After Town beat Darlington 2-0 yesterday, the 27-year-old (pictured left) said: "When the gaffer named the team I was buzzing, I had hairs standing up on the back of my neck and couldn't wait to get out."

"Obviously, you go out there and there's six or seven thousand fans screaming and shouting. It's great at Hayes where you've got 200 to 300 passionate people but when you walk out here it feels like you're in a proper game of football."

"I think in the last year and a half my performances have spoken for themselves and that's the reason the gaffer has signed me. I just want to play the way that I've been playing and I don't intend to change my game."

But the defender's debut was marred after he picked up a yellow card and, after already notching up four cautions at Hayes this term, the midfielder now faces a one-match suspension.

"Obviously, I don't think it was a booking. I've spoken to the gaffer, Paul Carden and Alan Neilson, and they don't think it's a booking. I knew the second the boy touched it he had taken a heavy touch."

"It's the way I play my game. I can't hold off from a tackle just because of suspensions. I won the ball clearly and fairly but the ref saw it a little bit differently."
